Holy Father's Prayer Intentions for June

General Intention: That believers may recognize in the Eucharist the living presence of the Risen One who accompanies them in daily life. Missionary Intention: That Christians in Europe may rediscover their true identity and participate with greater enthusiasm in the proclamation of the Gospel.

Sacrament of Matrimony

In accordance with the regulations of the Bishop of Arlington, couples must contact a priest and begin preparation at least six months prior to the wedding. Parish registration and active participation for a minimum of 3 months is required before preparation may begin. Living together before marriage is sinful and harmful to the future marriage. Couples who are living together will be asked to live separately during the preparation time.

Sacrament of Bantism

Sacrament of Baptism

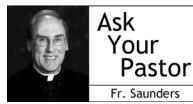

Parish Registration and the Baptism class are required. Baptisms are held every Sunday of each month at 1:30 p.m. in the Church Baptistery. Please contact the parish secretary to register for the Baptism classes.

Plan to attend the classes before the birth of the child.

What does it mean to be an active Catholic?

Frequently, those seeking to celebrate Marriage, have children baptized, or serve as sponsors for Confirmation or Baptism request a letter stating that they are parishioners and active, practicing Catholics. To receive such a letter, one must be registered in the parish for at least 3 months, attend Mass regularly, and be committed to a stewardship of time, talent, and treasure. We encourage all parishioners to become active in one of the parish organizations. In a community as large as Our Lady of Hope, one means of verifying participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes. If you choose not to participate in the support of the parish, or are unable to contribute at this time, please at least note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory. We will then be aware of your continued participation, and you will not be noted as "inactive" on our parish roster.

"Why can't a Catholic receive communion in a Protestant church (with Protestant family)?

Why can't a Catholic (with Protestant friends or family) receive communion as a 'symbol' in a Protestant church, as an occasional attendee for a special event, especially if the Catholic faithful participates in Mass and the Holy Eucharist throughout the year and comprehends the difference?"

Answer, Part 2:

We must continue to pray that the divisions which separate Christians will be healed. Until those differences are healed and out of respect for each other's beliefs, a real "intercommunion" cannot take place. I remember once I participated at the funeral of a friend at a Protestant Church, which included a communion service. The minister did indeed invite everyone to receive communion. However, I refrained out of respect for their beliefs and my own: I did not fully accept all the beliefs or practices of their particular denomination, nor did those members accept all that the Roman Catholic Church believed. Therefore, to receive communion would be to state "I am in communion with them," when I was not. Worse yet, had I partaken, I would have received something sacred which should bind me as part of their communion-- at least from a Catholic perspective-when in fact I have never participated in one of their services since then. We must remember that to receive communion does not depend simply on what a person individually believes; to receive communion aligns a person to a church and binds him to what that church teaches.

We must be careful not to let our hearts simply get the best of us and make blanket statements like, "Jesus loves everyone. Everyone is welcome to receive Communion." Yes, our Lord indeed loves everyone; however, we in turn must appreciate and respect the gift of the Holy Eucharist in order to receive our Lord with genuine love and devotion. I think those individuals who disregard the Church's regulations, if they are Catholic especially, have a lack of appreciation not only for Catholic theology but also for Church history. They forget the great examples of St. Edmund Campion or St. Margaret Clitherow and many others who were tortured and put to death under the reign of Elizabeth I because they celebrated or attended Mass, believed in transubstantiation, and were loyal to the Holy Father. They forget the examples of great saints, like St. John Neumann or St. John Vianney, who implored their congregations to use regularly the Sacrament of Penance so as to be in a state of grace when receiving the Lord. By observing these regulations concerning receiving Holy Communion we will better appreciate the gift of the Blessed Sacrament, respect each other's beliefs, and work towards unity. Ignoring these regulations will only build a false sense of communion and a shallow expression of love.

Fortnight for Freedom

At the request of Bishop Loverde, our diocese is participating in the "Fortnight for Freedom" from June 21-July 4. There will be various events and ac from June 21-July 4. There FORTNIGHT4FREEDOM.ORG will be various events and activities during this "special period of prayer, study, catechesis, and public action" throughout the Diocese of Arlington and the Archdiocese of Washington. For more information, please visit www.fortnight4freedom.org.

Would you be allowed in St. Peter's Basilica?

As the temperatures climb, there is the temptation to "dress down" for Mass. Clothing that is best suited for the beach or the ball field should not be worn at Mass. Clothing may not make a person, but everyone knows how we look does show respect for ourselves and God.

Father's Day Novena

In honor of Father's Day, a Novena of Masses will be offered for all fathers, living and deceased. It is not too late to λ enroll. Please complete a card available at the entrances of the Church. You may return the completed envelope by placing it in the collection basket, giving it to an usher, or dropping it off at the parish office. This is a wonderful way to remember our fathers.

Altar Flowers

The altar flowers are in honor of St. Joseph for guiding all fathers, uncles, priests, and men who positively shape our lives.

Augustine's Brothers

Augustine's Brothers is group for Catholic men who find it difficult to free themselves from the chains of pornography and other sexual behaviors. It is a group of men helping and supporting each other to overcome this powerful force. The group meets each Thursday night in Reston at St. John Neumann at 7:30 p.m. in classroom B9. For more information or questions contact Tim at augustinesbrothers@hotmail.com or 727-207-2856.

Knights of Columbus

Cereal for Summer

The Knights in Columbus in Loudoun County are trying to ease the burden over the summer on disadvantaged families by sponsoring a Cereal for Summer campaign. Knights will be collecting cereal, cereal bars, granola bars, pudding packs, other nonperishable snacks, and juice boxes at churches throughout Loudoun County. You may drop off your donations in the bin in the narthex through June 24th. Please help our Knights achieve their goal of 1,000 items donated!

Mass for the Feast of St. Josemaria Escriva
