PARISH INFORMATION

What does it mean to be an active Catholic? Those seeking to celebrate Marriage, have children baptized, or have a letter signed to serve as sponsors for Confirmation or Baptism should be parishioners and active, practicing Catholics. To be considered active, one must have been registered in the parish for at least three months, attend Mass regularly, and be committed to a stewardship of time, talent, and treasure. We encourage all parishioners to become active in one of the parish organizations.

In a community as large as Our Lady of Hope, our most effective means of verifying active participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes or electronic giving, such as Faith Direct. If you choose not to participate in the support of the parish, or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory. We will then be aware of your continued participation, and you will not be noted as "inactive" on our parish roster.

PREPARING FOR SACRAMENTS

Baptism & Baptism Class: Baptisms are held on Sundays at 1:30 p.m. The baptism class for parents is held one Saturday a month at 11:00 a.m. Please call the Parish Secretary to pre-register for the next available class.

Sacrament of Matrimony: In accordance with the regulations of the Bishop of Arlington, couples must contact a priest and begin preparation at least six months prior to the wedding. Parish registration and active participation for a minimum of three months is required before preparation may begin. Couples who are living together will be asked to live separately during the preparation time as living together before marriage is sinful and harmful to the future marriage.

First Communion: For Children: Generally, First Communion is received when a child is in second grade. Preparation for First Communion is a two year process, and students must complete both first and second grade classes before receiving Holy Communion. Please contact the Religious Education Office with questions.

Sacramental Preparation for Adults (RCIA): Adults who wish to receive Baptism, First Communion, and/or Confirmation are invited to attend the Inquiry Class on Thursday evenings. Please contact the Parish Secretary or visit the website to register.

Ash Wednesday Schedule

February 17, 2021

Mass with Distribution of Ashes
8:30 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.

Liturgy of the Word with Distribution of Ashes
5:00 p.m.

Due to safety concerns as the coronavirus pandemic continues, the distribution of ashes will be modified according to guidance from the Holy See. Ashes will be sprinkled on top of the head. All those receiving ashes are expected to approach the minister wearing a mask. The minister will be wearing a mask as well.

As a reminder, those who are at greater risk of getting the virus due to age or compromising health conditions are urged to attend Masses by way of our live streaming service. They should avoid large gatherings, including the Mass. Let us keep this in mind as we continue to pray for a quick end to the pandemic. We continue to pray for all those who have died as a result of the virus as well as those who are sick.

The praying of the Stations of the Cross will take place on Friday evenings at 7:00 p.m.

FREE THROW CHAMPS

Congratulations to the following OLOH Free Throw Champions: Joseph Igot (age 9); Dylan Turi (age 10); Dominic Igot (age 11); Noah Blubaugh (age 12); Anna Weltens (age 12); Andrew Gabriel (age 13). They will advance to the district level competition in the Knights of Columbus Free Throw Championship.

REMINDERS FOR THOSE ATTENDING MASS

OUR LADY OF HOPE | FALL 2020

Wear a Mask

All those ages ten and older should wear a face covering while in the church building. Many of our senior parishioners have shared that they would like to return to Mass, but they are fearful others are not wearing masks. Please help your brothers and sisters in Christ feel comfortable returning to Mass by honoring this request.

Social Distance

Please maintain at least six feet of space between your household and the next. Be mindful of distancing when entering, leaving, and during the Communion Procession. Do not sit in the pews that are roped off.

Receive Communion in the Hand

Please prayerfully consider receiving Communion on the hand during this time. It would be a sacrificial act of love for those who normally receive on the tongue to temporarily receive in the hand.

Please sanitize your hands before receiving Communion, if possible.

Bishop Burbidge's dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and Holy Days of Obligation remains in place.

OFFERTORY GIVING ALERT Offertory collections have drastically declined during the pandemic across all parishes in the Diocese, and Our Lady of Hope is no exception. We depend heavily on those donations on a weekly basis and our collections have diminished significantly. These are challenging times for all and it is understandable that some of our parish families are experiencing financial difficulties. Additionally, in-person attendance at Masses has been reduced due to COVID-19 concerns. Nevertheless, our daily expenses continue, even though we have made adjustments. This new year is filled with hope and promise – opportunities abound to grow our vital ministries, explore new ways to share the good news of Christ's love, and reflect His care and mercy to those in need throughout the community. We can make a difference in 2021 with these new challenges.

The parish vitally depends on offertory donations from caring individuals like you. Please be generous to the extent that your means can provide. If you have been unable to make in-person weekly offerings, we prayerfully request that you consider signing up for Faith Direct and setting up your recurring offertory donation. You can use Faith Direct from your computer, phone or tablet for recurring and one-time gifts. Sign up today by visiting membership.faith.direct/VA79, or text Enroll to (703) 343-9211.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN OUR COMMUNITY

Thank you for your support of the Catholic Charities Christmas Collection. Our total collection was $8,032.00. Your support is vital to the work of Catholic Charities, and we are so grateful for your gifts. If you missed the opportunity to give, you may do so by visiting ccda.net. All gifts stay in the diocese.

Thanks to your generosity, the Ladies of Hope exceeded their goal for the Thanksgiving Pie Sales, donating 110 pies to Christ House, Catholic Charities, the House of Mercy, and the Missionaries of Charity. They were also able to donate an addition $950 to the Missionaries of Charities for their soup kitchen in Southeast DC.

The Ortman family is also so grateful for your donations of blankets, sleeping bags, coats, thermal underwear, and more—so much that two SUVs could not hold everything! They had to rent a van as well to transport everything downtown. The items were distributed to the homeless in DC just before Christmas, along with meal bags and McDonald's gift cards.

Thank you again for continuing to bless our neighbors in need! We are so grateful for your ongoing support.

CATHOLIC HERALD COLLECTION

This weekend is the special collection for the Arlington Catholic Herald, the award-winning diocesan newspaper. The Herald supports the Church's mission to evangelize by providing news from a Catholic perspective. It strives to inform, inspire, and connect Catholics by sharing the faith story of the Arlington Diocese. Your contribution to this collection helps offset the cost to the parish, and helps the Arlington Catholic Herald continue to bring us spiritual nourishment, messages from the bishop, and local, national, and international headlines. Thank you for your generosity.

SEPARATED? DIVORCED? WIDOWED?

The Rebuilding Program sponsored by the Diocese of Arlington Office of Marriage, Family, and Respect Life helps people of all faiths who are separated, divorced, or widowed and want to move on with their lives. We are adapting our program to the pandemic, and we're hoping to offer an eight week program starting Sunday, April 11, meeting Sunday afternoons from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m. The location of our meetings is not yet determined, and will likely be a combination of Zoom, some outdoor locations, and if situations allow, some indoor meetings. Topics include adaptation, grief, anger, self-worth, openness, love, and relatedness.

Email facilitator@copingrebuilding.com or visit copingrebuilding.com more information. If you are (or may be) interested, please register at our website so we can judge the interest level as we try to plan for the alternative format this year.

Inclement Weather Policy

Sunday Mass

If at all possible, assuming the Priest can make it to the church, Mass will take place as scheduled.

Daily Mass

When Loudoun County Schools are delayed or close because of inclement weather, the 8:30 a.m. Mass will be canceled.

Parish Office, Religious Education, and Parish Activities

If Loudoun County Public Schools are closed for the day, close early, or cancel nighttime activities due to inclement weather (snow, ice, storm, etc.), then the Parish Office is closed and all parish activities, including Religious Education Classes, Eucharistic Adoration, and confession are canceled and the building is closed.

Find our full Inclement Weather Policy at ourladyofhope.net/inclement-weather.

JOB 7:1-4, 6-7

Job spoke, saying:

Is not man's life on earth a drudgery?

Are not his days those of hirelings?

He is a slave who longs for the shade,
a hireling who waits for his wages.

So I have been assigned months of misery,
and troubled nights have been allotted to me.

If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?"
then the night drags on;

I am filled with restlessness until the dawn.

My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle;
they come to an end without hope.

Remember that my life is like the wind;
I shall not see happiness again.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. Ps. 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

R./ Praise the Lord, who heals the brokenhearted.

1 CORINTHIANS 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

MARK 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them.

When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him.

Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

BISHOP'S STATEMENT

Following the Virginia Senate's passage of abortion expansion legislation, Bishop Michael F. Burbidge and Bishop Barry C. Knestout (Diocese of Richmond) issued a statement expressing their disappointment in the state Senate, and urging the Virginia House of Representatives to reject the policy. The Bishops' full statement may be found on our website at ourladyofhope.net/bishops-statement-01262021.

Encourage ONE ANOTHER BY WORD AND DEED

This weekend every household in our parish will be asked to make a Bishop's Lenten Appeal (BLA) pledge or gift. The BLA provides an opportunity to unite as a Catholic family and support programs, ministries and services that no single individual or parish could offer by itself. After reflecting upon the many blessings that God has given you, please prayerfully consider making BLA a pledge. Every donation is vital to the success of the BLA. You may complete a pledge card at Mass, mail in your pledge, go online to arlingtondiocese.org or scan the QR code to donate.
