PARISH INFORMATION

What does it mean to be an active Catholic? Those seeking to celebrate Marriage, have children baptized, or have a letter signed to serve as sponsors for Confirmation or Baptism should be parishioners and active, practicing Catholics. To be considered active, one must have been registered in the parish for at least three months, attend Mass regularly, and be committed to a stewardship of time, talent, and treasure. We encourage all parishioners to become active in one of the parish organizations.

In a community as large as Our Lady of Hope, our most effective means of verifying active participation is through the use of parish offertory envelopes or electronic giving, such as Faith Direct. If you choose not to participate in the support of the parish, or are unable to contribute at this time, please note your prayerful support on your envelope and place it in the weekly offertory. We will then be aware of your continued participation, and you will not be noted as "inactive" on our parish roster.

PREPARING FOR SACRAMENTS

Baptism & Baptism Class: Baptisms are held on Sundays at 1:30 p.m. The baptism class for parents is held one Saturday a month at 11:00 a.m. Please call the Parish Secretary to pre-register for the next available class.

Sacrament of Matrimony: In accordance with the regulations of the Bishop of Arlington, couples must contact a priest and begin preparation at least six months prior to the wedding. Parish registration and active participation for a minimum of three months is required before preparation may begin. Couples who are living together will be asked to live separately during the preparation time as living together before marriage is sinful and harmful to the future marriage.

First Communion: For Children: Generally, First Communion is received when a child is in second grade. Preparation for First Communion is a two year process, and students must complete both first and second grade classes before receiving Holy Communion. Please contact the Religious Education Office with questions.

Sacramental Preparation for Adults (RCIA): Adults who wish to receive Baptism, First Communion, and/or Confirmation are invited to attend the Inquiry Class on Thursday evenings. Please contact the Parish Secretary or visit the website to register.

VIRTUAL OPEN HOUSE

Families interested in Kindergarten through sixth grade for the 2021-2022 School Year are invited to Our Lady of Hope School's Virtual Fall Open House on November 18th at 9:30 a.m. We offer a strong Catholic identity and a STEM-focused curriculum

Second grade students learn about the Sacrament of Baptism with Fr. Willard designed for success. Integrated teaching styles and a small, family-friendly atmosphere allow teachers to partner with parents and educate your child for now and for eternity. Join a conversation with our principal, participate in a Q&A, take a virtual tour, and learn more about the opportunities a Catholic education can offer your child. Registered families at Our Lady of Hope receive in-parish tuition rates.

Please RSVP at ourladyofhopeschool.net/visit-us/ and put "Virtual Fall Open House RSVP" in the comments. Closer to the date, a Zoom link will be sent to families who RSVP.

HIGH SCHOOL PLACEMENT TEST

Eighth grade students attending public school, Catholic private school outside the Diocese of Arlington, or non-Catholic private schools who are interested in attending a Catholic High School must take the High School Placement Test. The test will be administered on Saturday, December 5. Registration must be completed and paid by Friday, December 4. Find more information or register your student at tinyurl.com/HSPT-20.

FAITH FORMATION SURVEY

Religious Education shouldn't end at Confirmation. Our RE department is working hard to provide programming for parishioners of all ages and stages of life. Take a minute to let them know what kind of programs you are interested in seeing at Our Lady of Hope. The more we know, the better we can serve you! Visit tinyurl.com/OLOHRE to take a brief survey by November 23.

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of Hope,

As we celebrate World Day of the Poor this Sunday, I express my ongoing gratitude for your generosity to the needy through various activities sponsored by our parish organizations. These are concrete ways for us to live the Lord's teaching that "whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me." (Matt. 25:40) We serve the needy because we are disciples of the Master who identified himself with them. And because He identified himself with them, we know that when we serve anyone in need, we serve the Lord. Yes, we have tangible contact with Christ present in our brother or sister.

In an effort to expand our ability to serve those in need, this World Day of the Poor is an opportune time to inform you of a change in the use of monies collected in the poor box. Until now, as many of you know, there has been a designated beneficiary of the poor box announced weekly. These were limited to Birthright, the Little Sisters of the Poor, the Poor Clares, and the Red Cloud Indian School of South Dakota. While all are worthy, it is my view, as well as that of the members of the Finance Council, that a select group of institutions or religious communities should not have a special claim on our poor box. Parishioners are free to donate to them directly at any time as they see fit. We do however have a responsibility,

ENTRANCE: ALL HAIL THE POWER OF JESUS' NAME

Oliver Holden, 1765-1844
Edward Perronet, 1726-1792; John Rippon, 1751-1836, alt.

All hail the pow'r of Jesus' name!
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring for the royal diadem
And crown him Lord of all;
Bring forth the royal diadem
And crown him Lord of all.

Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all;
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all;
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

O that with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall,
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all;
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

OFFERTORY: GODHEAD HERE IN HIDING

Thomas Aquinas, 1225-1274; Tr. by Gerard M. Hopkins, 1844-1889
French carol, 15th cent.

Godhead here in hiding,
Whom I do adore
Masked by these bare shadows,
Shape and nothing more,
See Lord, at thy service
Low lies here a heart
Lost, all lost in wonder
At the God thou art.

On the cross thy Godhead
Made no sign to men;
Here thy ver manhood
Steals from human ken:
Both are my confession,
Both are my belief,
And I pray the prayer
Of the dying thief.

O thou, our reminder
Of the Crucified,
Living Bread, the life of
Us for whom he died,
Lend this life me, then;
Feed and feast my mind,
There be thou the sweetness
Man was meant to find.

Jesus, whom I look at,
Shrouded here below,
I beseech thee, send me
What I thirst for so,
Some day to gaze on thee
Face to face in light
And be blest forever
With thy glory's sight.

Seeing, touching tasting
Are in thee deceived;
How says trusty hearing?
That shall be believed;
What God's Son has told me,
Take for truth I do;
Truth himself speaks truly
Or there's nothing true.

I am not like Thomas,
Wounds I cannot see,
But I plainly call thee
Lord and God as he:
This faith each day deeper
Be my holding of,
Daily make me harder
Hope and dearer love.

Like what tender tales tell
Of the Pelican,
Bathe me, Jesus Lord, in What thy bosom ran--
Blood that but one drop of
Has the pow'r to win
All the world forgiveness
Of its world of sin.

COMMUNION: PRAISE MY SOUL, THE KING OF HEAVEN

Johann Rist, 1607-1667
Tr. by Catherine Winkworth, 1827-1878, alt.

Praise my soul, the King of heaven;
To his feet thy tribute bring;
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore his praises sing.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the everlasting King.

Fatherlike he tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame he knows;
In his hands he gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Widely yet his mercy flows.

Angels, help us to adore him;
Ye behold him face to face;
Sun and moon, bow down before him,
Dwellers in all time and space.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise with us the God of grace.

Praise him for his grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide and swift to bless.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glorious in his faithfulness.

Frail as summer's flow'r we flourish;
Blows the wind and it is gone.
But while morals rise and perish;
God endures unchanging on.
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise the high eternal one.

RECESSIONAL: THE KING SHALL COME

Sixteen Tune Settings, Philadelphia, 1812; Attr. to Lucius Chapin, 1760-1842
John Brownlie, 1857-1925, alt.

The King shall come when morning dawns, / And light triumphant breaks;
When beauty gilds the eastern hills, / And life to joy awakes.

Not, as of old, a little Child, / To suffer and to die,
But crowned with glory like the sun, / That lights the morning sky.

The King shall come when morning dawns, / And earth's dark night is past;
O haste the rising of that morn, / Whose day shall ever last.

Now let the endless bliss begin, / By holy saints foretold,
When right shall triumph over wrong, / And truth shall be extolled.

The King shall come when morning dawns, / And light and beauty brings;
Hail, Christ the Lord, thy people pray; / Come quickly King of kings.

PROVERBS 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

R./ Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

1 THESSALONIANS 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

MATTHEW 25:1-13

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--to each according to his ability. Then he went away. [Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.]

After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' [Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents. See, I have made two more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.' Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter? Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"] with the funds which you provide to the poor box, to assist the needy in our area, even those in our own parish. After all, charity begins at home. Unless a change is made, the parish will not have the flexibility to assist others in need – others who in justice have a rightful claim to any assistance we may be able to give.

Let me assure everyone that this change does not mean that Our Lady of Hope will not give donations to the above mentioned organizations and religious communities in the future, although certainly not at the level as in the past. I am well aware, for example, that there are not a few members of our parish who are active supporters of Birtheright in Leesburg. I applaud them and all those who work actively to assist pregnant women and promote the dignity of human life. The baby bottle drives and the clothing drives in support of Birtheright will continue.

I draw your attention to the new poor boxes – two in the vestibule and one near the statue of St. Jude – and ask for your continued remembrance of the poor as you visit the Church. Once again, any monies donated to the poor box will be used for the needy with a particular emphasis on those in our area.

In this month in which we observe Thanksgiving Day, may we be grateful for opportunities which Providence gives us to serve Christ in the needy.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father Killian
