Bible, Sacred Tradition	Wisdom: The gift of wisdom enables us “to think with the mind of Christ,” to appreciate divine things, and to see the work of God in our lives. With wisdom, we see beyond life in this world, and look toward Heaven.
Fear of the Lord: We respect God as God, who is all-powerful, all-knowing, all-loving, infinite and eternal. We love God above all things, and have such respect and awe that we do not want to sin or face the punishment due to sin. The gift of fear of the Lord motivates us to live in God’s grace, and to avoid the evil of sin.	Knowledge: We receive and accept the faith. Fortitude

Fortitude: We have courage to live and to defend the faith. We are strong against temptation and persecution. Fortitude helps us to do what is good and right even if it means being unpopular, facing persecution, or even being a martyr.

Piety: We are humble before God, realizing that all of our blessings come from Him. Therefore, piety inspires us to worship God and to love Him.

Understanding: Having faith, understanding gives us deeper insight into the mysteries of faith it so that we can better live it. With understanding, a person can then help to explain the faith to others.

Counsel: With counsel, a person is better able to make good decisions, knowing the difference between right and wrong. Counsel enables a person to advise and guide others.
